

Participant's Guide to
Plan Management at Mpower

• enhancing abilities • supporting families • strengthening communities

What is Plan Management?

Plan Management is one of the ways that you can choose to manage funding in your NDIS plan. Plan Management is a service funded through the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), and if included in your NDIS plan there is no additional cost to the participant. Plan Management assists and supports NDIS participants to manage their NDIS funding. Plan Managed participants can engage services from registered or unregistered NDIS providers.

How does Plan Management work at Mpower?

Since 2015, our experienced Plan Management Team understand that navigating your own NDIS funding may be difficult and overwhelming. At Mpower we get to know you and your needs so we can provide you with a service most suited to you and your unique situation. As your Plan Manager we will prioritise claims and payments taking the pressure off you while ensuring you have all the information to give you choice and control, 24 hours 7 days a week.

To support you in having the most accurate and up to date information Mpower uses a client platform called MYP. This platform allows you to effortlessly engage with our team to efficiently manage your plan budgets, see all payments to providers and claims for service. Our platform is tailored to your needs allowing you to approve payment to your chosen providers, manage and monitor your budget, see all claims and payments made from your NDIS plan while providing you with real time updates of your plan budget.

Our platform combined with our Plan Management team will ensure you receive a personalised service that meets your individual need.

Who makes the rules?

As a registered NDIS provider, Mpower is governed and accountable to the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013. Our service parameters are determined by the National Disability Services Insurance Agency (NDIA). Further information can be found at;

These documents provide an overall guide of the NDIA's expectations of Plan Management Service Providers and further information on governing legislation.

It is important that you know what to expect from Mpower, its services and employees, and what we need from you as participants to ensure we deliver a quality plan management service.

As a participant you are required to:

- Supply Mpower with your full NDIS plan
- Supply Mpower with a copy of your Service Agreement(s) with support providers engaged by the Participant/Representative
- Inform Mpower of any changes to your NDIS plan including early plan reviews, rollovers etc.
- Supply invoices via email to pm@mpower.org.au or in person to Mpower reception
- Inform all your support providers that Mpower is your Plan Manager
- Provide one month's notice in writing if you wish to end your Service Agreement
- Update Mpower with any changes to ensure current and up to date information can be provided
- Inform us if the participant requires any form of restrictive practice and wishes to access Short Term Accommodation from their plan
- Provide Mpower with any information relevant to providing plan management support
- Ensure the providers you engage have a valid ABN

As your Plan Manager we will:

- Advise you of your plan balances to maximise choice and control of your budget
- Assist you in using the Mpower client portal (MYP)
- Consult with you on choices for supports
- Advise you of options for authorising claiming and payment for supports
- Advise you of any potential for overspending on your plan
- Give you one months' notice prior to ceasing any service, except where the participant/nominee fails to comply with the agreed responsibilities.
- Assist in ensuring your information is current and up to date
- Ensure your information is kept private and confidential
- Assist you in making complaints or feedback as required
- Regularly invoice and/or claim as agreed by the participant/nominee
- Provide supports in a manner consistent with all relevant laws including the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013, the National Disability Insurance Scheme Rules and the Australian Consumer Law
- Create and manage service bookings on the MyPlace portal on your behalf
- Manage and monitor funds remaining in your NDIS plan
- Process payment of invoices within 5 days of approval
- Contact the participant and/or the provider if there are any errors in payment – could be in accordance with the provider's terms
- Advise you of any supports and services which cannot be paid for out of your NDIS plan
- Advise you about what has been spent, where payments have been made and, the remaining balance of funds, by keeping the information in the Mpower client platform up to date

Rights & Responsibilities

Privacy Information

Mpower is a community service that works together with other services to meet the needs of the community. The following information provides general advice on how your personal and health information will be handled while you are a user of this service.

What happens to information about me?

When you become a service user of this agency a record of your personal and health information will be kept. This includes your name, address, contact details and information about your health. Every time you attend or have contact with us, new information is added to your record. Your personal and health information is stored securely and disposed of, as required by the Health Records Act 2001.

Why is this information necessary?

Mpower collect and keep this information to provide you with an appropriate service. Your personal and health information can help us to identify which services are best to meet your needs. This allows staff involved with your support to access your information easily when it is needed and lessens the need to collect the same information over and over.

Some information may also be used for research and planning, to help us provide better service outcomes. In this case, any identifying information, such as your name and contact details, will be removed before the information is used.

What rights do I have to access my health information?

You can ask to see or correct any information held on your record. This may include viewing the information, getting a summary or in some cases a full copy of your record, or having information explained to you. If you believe your information is incorrect, incomplete, out of date or misleading a correcting statement can be added. Some limits may apply where particular circumstances prevent us from releasing information and you cannot ask to have information removed. If limits apply to your record, this will be explained to you. For more information please speak to your worker.

How will my information remain confidential?

Mpower has policies about who can see and use your personal and health information and our staff members must treat your information confidentially. Your privacy is also protected by The Privacy Act, 1988. We only share personal or health information about you with people who are directly involved in your ongoing care, for the purpose of a particular service. If we need to share information for any other purpose we will request your consent before doing so (unless otherwise required by law).

What if I am unable to give consent?

In some cases, consumers may not be able to give consent because they are legally unable to make a decision about release of their information (eg, children, people with a severe illness or major injury, or those with a mental illness or other disability).

In such cases, a decision will be sought from the services users authorised representative. People who can act as authorised representatives in these circumstances are specified by law.

Who may have access to information about me?

We may recommend that other service providers outside this agency become involved in your care. In this case, you will be asked to give consent for us to disclose any necessary information from your record to the other services, to help them assess your needs and provide you with the relevant support.

When can information be disclosed to other people without my consent?

There are few situations when your information may be shared without your consent. For example, in an emergency situation, we would release medical information about you to aid emergency treatment.

In certain circumstances, Mpower may be required by law to release personal information about you. Examples may include:

- Report of notifiable diseases to the Department of Health & Human Services; or
- Providing health records to a court when required in relation to legal proceedings;
- Providing health records to a law enforcement agency (eg. Police, Child Protection) in response to a search warrant.

If any of these circumstances apply we will advise you.

It is important that you know what to expect from Mpower, its services and staff and what your responsibilities are whilst receiving services.

You have the right to:

- quality services and programs with high standards
- be treated with respect and dignity at all times
- be informed of all aspects of the service provided eg. eligibility, fees, people involved in your support, services available, alternative services
- refuse services
- have your privacy respected and your personal information treated as confidential
- receive services for which you have provided consent
- have services provided in an environment that is accessible, clean, safe and secure
- be free from abuse and neglect
- make a complaint or provide a compliment
- involve an advocate of your choice in any aspect of your support
- have strength based planning that is person or family centered.
- To be actively involved in the decisions around the delivery of your service
- have services that respect your culture and communication needs
- have opportunities for community inclusion and a valued role in the community
- have your individual needs considered when a service is provided

You have a responsibility to:

- inform staff about changes to your situation
- treat Mpower equipment and property with care and to report any damage
- contribute to quality improvement by providing feedback to the agency
- respect the human worth and dignity of Mpower staff and other consumers
- inform staff of any cancellation to appointment or programs as early as possible

Complaints – It's OK to complain

What can a complaint be about?

A complaint can be about anything to do with the service you receive from Mpower.

Who can make a complaint?

Anyone can make a complaint about Mpower services. It may be a person with a disability, a family member or an advocate.

Who can help you make a complaint?

To help you make a complaint you can ask a friend, family member, support worker, case manager, plan support coordinator or advocate.

Will you get into trouble or lose your services for making a complaint?

No, you will not get into trouble or lose your service. It is your right to make a complaint when you are not happy with the services received. Mpower must make sure that you are treated with respect and not disadvantaged because you made a complaint.

Complaints process

Mpower treat all complaints seriously and with confidentiality. You can find a copy of our Complaints Policy on the website or you can ask a member of staff to provide you with a copy.

You can also make a complaint on the Mpower website www.mpower.org.au, by phone or email, feedback@mpower.org.au

Complaint details will be kept confidentially in a complaints register at Mpower which is reviewed regularly for areas of improvement.

Contact us on (03) 5561 8111, your enquiries are welcome.

If you are not happy with the outcome or want to make a complaint outside of Mpower you can;

Incident Management

All NDIS registered providers must have a documented process to record, investigate, assess and respond to incidents as they occur. If you have any concern with Mpower services please contact us.

Advocacy

Mpower service users are entitled to have an advocate present at any meeting at Mpower. This includes meetings for access to services, assistance with planning, decision making, choice or making a complaint. The person who requires an advocate to be appointed needs to be involved in the selection of the advocate to ensure they maintain active participation in the process.

To ensure independence and to avoid conflict of interest Mpower employees are not able to act as an advocate for Mpower consumers.
